All models illustrated in the brochure are approved to the above mentioned British Standard for touring caravans. Each caravan is issued with a certificate giving the outline details of this British Standard which was introduced to ensure adequate minimum design requirements to the advantage of the potential customer.

Additional extras

A limited number of additions can be made to the standard specification of each model if required, providing prior to completion of the caravan adequate notice is given. Details of these extras can be found with the retail price list, and in addition if certain items included in the standard specification are not required these can be deleted to suit the customer's individual requirements.

Ex works weight

The unladen weight given for each model is the weight of the caravan ex works to standard specification, slight variations (plus or minus 5%) on the quoted figure must be allowed for, however, due to manufacturing tolerances that are outside our control.

Service and Repairs

Full factory service and repair facilities are available to all customers by appointment, and any type of repair work can be undertaken. For further information telephone or write to the factory at the address given.

Conditions of sale

Castleton caravans are sold on the condition that the company will rectify free of charge by replacement or repair, any defects which, under proper use, appear in the caravan within 12 calendar months from the original date of purchase, and which arise solely from design materials or workmanship, on condition that the caravan is taken for repair to, and afterwards collected from the premises of the authorised Castleton distributor from whom the caravan was purchased, at the expense of the purchaser. The company will not be responsible for proprietary articles such as tyres, wheels, coupling, windows, upholstery etc. not manufactured by the company, or for personal injury arising from any defects, and all other warranties or conditions statutory or otherwise as to quality or fitness for any purpose are expressly excluded. The publication and issue of this brochure does not constitute an offer. Attention is also drawn to the fact that whilst the information contained within this brochure is correct at October 1992, it may be necessary that on account of use of alternative materials or the shortage of supplies, alterations to the standard specification may have to be made to the caravans described within this brochure. Particulars of any such changes may be obtained from Castleton Caravans Limited.

Castleton Owners Club

To add to your enjoyment of owning a Castleton Caravan, all owners are invited to become members of the Castleton Owners Club.

Each season about 20 rallies are organised throughout the country, and at these rallies members have the opportunity to meet other owners, all of whom share a common interest in Castleton caravans.

The duration of these rallies, which are the main function of the Owners' Club, range from weekends only to five days duration.

Further information and a membership form can be obtained by completing the application below and returning to the Club Secretary:-
